

Azerbaijan delivered a statement on behalf of the Non-Aligned Movement during the Second Intersessional Meeting for dialogue and cooperation on Human Rights and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

On December 3rd, 2019, the Second Intersessional Meeting for dialogue and cooperation on Human Rights and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development was organized in accordance with the Human Rights Council resolution 37/24 on the promotion and protection of human rights and the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. The meeting was devoted to the theme of “Accelerated action and transformative pathways: realizing the decade of action and delivery for sustainable development”.

The intersessional meeting brought together representatives of Member States along with 12-15 experts from State institutions (such as national parliaments, NHRIs, and national development agencies), United Nations and regional human rights mechanisms, United Nations agencies and country teams (UNCTs), academia and CSOs. The meeting was open to Human Rights Council members and observers, including non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).

Report of the Meeting will be made available to the High Level Political Forum (HLPF) for its 2020 session and to the 43rd session of the Human Rights Council.
