

37th session of the UPR Working Group
UPR of Lebanon

Statement delivered by Mr. Emin Aslanov, First Secretary of the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Azerbaijan to the UN Office and other International Organizations in Geneva

18 January 2021

Madame President,

Azerbaijan expresses its gratitude to the distinguished delegation of Lebanon for the presentation of its national report.

Azerbaijan welcomes the commitment of Lebanon to the UPR process and positively takes note of the progress achieved by the Government of Lebanon in implementation of the recommendations from the previous cycle of the UPR.

Azerbaijan offers the following recommendations to Lebanon:

1. Redouble its efforts to improve the provision of public services, including by measures aimed at ensuring increased efficiency and accountability in the public services delivery;
2. Take further measures to ensure empowerment of women in all spheres;
3. Consider ratifying the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

In conclusion, we wish the delegation of Lebanon a successful review.

I thank you.
